

As part of 16 days of action against violence against women Engender is delighted to invite you to hear Cynthia Cockburn talk about:

MALE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN: LINKS BETWEEN PEACE AND WAR

Cynthia Cockburn is a feminist researcher and writer, and active in the networks Women in Black against War and the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom

Thursday 2nd December, 10am - 12pm

Room 3, STUC offices, 333 Woodlands Road,
Glasgow, G3 6NG

To book a place please RSVP to info@engender.org.uk or call 0131 558 9596

16 Days of Action against Violence against Women is a global campaign with events held between 25th Nov – 10th Dec each year.