

art for equality

Children and young people raise awareness about equality through the means of creative art.

HOWDEN PARK CENTRE, LIVINGSTON, 10:00AM – 12:00PM.

West Lothian Violence against Women Strategic Partnership are very pleased to invite you to the opening of an art exhibition which will include the work of young people from Broxburn Academy, Linlithgow Academy and Whitburn Academy. This exhibition will mark the beginning of the 16 days of action to raise awareness of gender inequality and violence against women in West Lothian.

Councillor Peter Johnston, Leader of the Council, will be opening the event with Sandra Paton, national expert on Children and Domestic Abuse in Scotland.

Places are limited so please book early. If you wish to register for the event please contact:
civiccentreadminteam@westlothian.gov.uk or call 01506 281111.

westlothian.gov.uk

West Lothian
Council