The Scottish Women's Convention is funded solely by The Scottish Government to communicate and consult with women in Scotland to influence public policy. Through the Convention's policy work, round table and celebratory events the SWC strives to have contact with women and relevant organisations. The SWC aims to provide an effective way of consulting with a diverse range of women in Scotland.

The Scottish Women's Convention has a network of over 300,000 women from relevant organisations throughout Scotland.

During our roadshow events throughout Scotland, an issue of concern for many women is the impact the current financial crisis will have on women in Scotland.
