

International Scotland's for Peace Day

21st September, 6.30pm Scottish Parliament

Hosted by Bill Kidd for the Nuclear Disarmament crossparty group.

A lively discussion to help explore the international support that can be gained for Scotland's opposition to the UK Government's addiction to nuclear weapons, and to look at a definition of defence and security that means meeting needs and facing challenges like climate change, economic chaos and the energy crisis.

High profile international panel with feedback from International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN) campaigners conference in Geneva and Women's International League for Peace and Freedom Global Congress in Costa Rica.
