

Scottish Rural Equality Network National Conference

...Putting the fizz back into community action

This is an opportunity for you to link up with people from across rural Scotland and take part in a groundbreaking national event.

What will the conference include?

- Learn about rural identity and who are included or excluded in our local communities.
- Learn useful new ideas from key speakers
- Hear successful case studies of local community action from around rural Scotland
- Hold your own local discussions on these issues
- Link up with other people and groups across rural Scotland.

Where is it taking place? Everywhere!

The central 'hub' and speakers will be in Inverness, but everything will be filmed and broadcast live across rural Scotland using specifically designed internet technology. Don't worry, it's really easy to take part!
