

Women in Scotland's Economy

A programme for debate, discussion and challenge in gender equality and equality analysis in the development of economic policy. The programme of seminars, debates and conferences will run over the coming year, ending with an international conference in October 2011.

The launch will be held on Monday 18 October 2010 from 5pm in the Deepröse Lecture Theatre, Glasgow Caledonian University, and will take the form of a panel debate by senior women involved in policy development and analysis engaging in discussion on the position and contribution of women to Scotland's economy. There will also be the opportunity for networking and, it is hoped, to stimulate debate and discussion beyond the event.

The format of the evening is as follows:

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 5pm | Arrival and refreshments |
| 5.30pm | Introduction and Welcome by GCU Principal, Professor Pamela Gilles |
| 5.45-6.45pm | Panel input
Yvonne Strachan, Scottish Government
Ros Micklem, EHRC
Linda McDowell, Scottish Enterprise |
| 6.45-7.15pm | Questions and discussion chaired by Professor Ailsa McKay, GCU |
| 7.15pm | Response from Discussant, Emma Ritch, Close the Gap |
| 7.30pm | Close, networking and refreshments. |

To register for this event and print your free ticket, please click the following link.
<http://www.eventbrite.com/event/808202355>