

Women Of The Merchant City History Walk: Launch Event:

Sunday 8 March, 2pm, Tickets £6.50.

<http://www.womenslibrary.org.uk/2009/03/merchant-city-women-walk/>

Glasgow's Women And The Abolition Movement Walk:

15 March, 10am, Tickets £6.50.

www.womenslibrary.org.uk/2009/03/women-abolition-movement-walk/

West End Women's Heritage Walk:

22 March, 2pm, Tickets £6.50.

www.womenslibrary.org.uk/2009/03/west-end-womens-heritage-walk/

Glasgow's Women And The Necropolis:

Sunday 29 March, 2pm, FREE. The first trial run of a walk based in the Glasgow Necropolis, this walk is free and we would really appreciate any feedback you can give us for developing this walk further.

Women Writers Unite: Women And Animals:

Thursday 12 March, 7pm - 9pm. To mark International Women's Day we're holding the first in a series of writer's evenings. Creativity will be unleashed as Zoë Strachan and Elizabeth Reeder introduce writers to give readings of their work on the theme of Women and Animals.

Creative Writing:

Starts Tuesday 21 April, 1pm - 3pm, 10-week course. An introduction to creative writing. The course will help you progress your skills through writing, reading and discussion in a relaxed and friendly environment.

Digital Photography:

Starts Thursday 23 April, 1pm to 3pm. 10-week course. Get out and about taking pictures and then learn how to download, edit and use your images in a variety of ways.

Please contact GWL for more information on any of the above events: 0141 552 8345 or email laura.dolan@womenslibrary.org.uk or check our website:

www.womenslibrary.org.uk