Commercial Sexual Exploitation in Scotland

A launch of a new DVD and resource pack

Wednesday 29th September

10am – 1.00pm

Quaker Meeting house 7 Victoria Terrace
Edinburgh EH1 2JL

The Women's Support project and Zero Tolerance are pleased to have worked with the Media Co-Op on "Money & Power - Commercial Sexual Exploitation in Scotland."

This new resource gives voice to some women involved in Commercial Sexual Exploitation in Scotland along with some of the workers involved on local and national levels. The short DVD clip has been developed to support workers in Violence Against Women partnerships, Training consortia and organisations raise awareness of the issues around commercial sexual exploitation and violence against women.

Launch & Info session

WE are delighted to be holding a morning session to launch the new DVD and accompanying resource pack. This session is aimed at those involved in Violence Against Women Multi Agency Partnerships, Training Consortia and VAW organisations. The morning will take the form of reviewing the DVD and then looking at how this can be used on local levels. There are a limited number of places for the session - apply early to secure a place!

Money & Power – Wednesday 29th Sept 2010

Please note that there are a limited number of places available on the day. If we are over subscribed, we will form a waiting list and priority will be given to those who are in a position to or want to use the resources in their work..
