

One Day Conference
6th October 2010

Please Don't Stop the Music

The Sexualisation of Women and Girls & the Power Imbalance in the Music Industry

On the 6th of October 2010 the rose project will be hosting their Annual Conference at the Glasgow Royal Concert Hall.

The event will bring together young people, teachers and workers to look at the music industry today and how it has changed over the years. How women & girls are represented in the music industry and the messages that young people are receiving. We will look at the power imbalance in the music industry and ask is it still about the music?

Speaking at the conference will be:

Andrew Dubber, Reader in Music Industry Innovation at Birmingham City University,

Byron Hurt, American Activist and Documentary Film Maker (TBC)

There will be a performance once again from the Citizen's Theatre Young Co.

To register your interest in the conference please contact Paula
Dunn: paula@rapecrisiscentre-glasgow.co.uk