

Lothian Violence Against Women Training Consortium

New Training Day: Prostitution and other forms of commercial sexual exploitation – the harm caused and how to respond

Aim

This day will look at prostitution and other forms of commercial sexual exploitation, will highlight links to other forms of male violence, and explore current approaches to this issue.

This day will cover:

- Definitions
- Causes of commercial sexual exploitation
- The extent of the problem
- The legal situation
- Effects on women and children
- Current approaches
- Services and resources available

Audience

This event is targeted at colleagues from the criminal justice, mental health, children and families, drug and alcohol and housing sector in particular.

- Venue: The Engine Shed, St Leonards Lane, Edinburgh
- Date: 15th November 2010
- Time: 9.30-4.30 (Lunch will be provided)

To book a place email: lynne.rooney@nhsllothian.scot.nhs.uk

