

EVERYWOMAN

...because women are more likely to be poor than men

YOU CAN'T HAVE IT ALL!

Why should having children mean low pay, limited career options and job insecurity for women?

WHOSE POVERTY IS IT ANYWAY?

The truth about child poverty — it's about women's low income!

MOVE OVER DARLING

Being overlooked for promotion because you may have children one day — the everyday assumptions our bosses make about us

HORRORSCOPES: Find out if your unpaid caring will ever be valued

CARING

Mothers' low incomes are the cause of 70% of child poverty.*

Women's caring roles are undervalued in terms of market criteria and their unpaid caring roles rendered invisible by perceptions of what constitutes work and worth.

Get the message that poverty is a gendered issue to your MSP – Send to them at The Scottish Parliament, Edinburgh EH99 1SP

EVERYWOMAN

...because women are more likely to be poor than men

*Fawcett Society briefing 'Keeping Mum', 2008

0131 558 9596
www.engender.org.uk