

'Gender Matters' Engender Conference 2015
Thursday 4th June, 10-4.30, Old Sheriff Court Glasgow

10.00 - Registration, tea and coffee and a chance to look around stalls

10.30 – Gender Equality by 2025?

- A chance to celebrate successes of the past year, and think big about the next 10.

11.20 – Gender Matters in Society and Culture

- Featuring contributions from:
 - Talat Yaqoob, 'Intersectionality; sharing the platform'
 - Ghizala Avan, Amina MWRC, 'White feminists as allies to Muslim women'
 - Brenna Aston, 'A feminist online space?'

12.30 Lunch, with opportunities to:

- Check out stalls from organisations including: Engender, Inclusion, Close the Gap, Scottish Women's Aid, Rape Crisis Glasgow, and the Glasgow Women's Library book stall
- Get creative with Scottish Women's Aid
- Watch 'Women and the S Word', a film made by 3 young women about women's experiences of sectarianism
- View and comment on responses from the morning session and the Gender Matters survey

1.30 Gender Matters in the Economy

- Featuring contributions from:
 - Caitlin McLean, Glasgow Caledonian University, 'A Feminist Citizens' Income'
 - Lebo Mohlakoana, Refugee Women's Strategy Group, 'Exclusion from the formal economy'
- and a screening of our short film 'Marginaleyes'

2.50 – Gender Matters in Politics and Power

- Featuring contributions from:
 - Zara Kitson, So Say Scotland, 'Women in mass participatory democracy'
 - Abi Herrmann, Women's Equality Party, 'The need for a women's equality party'
 - Sue Kelly, Inclusion Scotland, 'Political inclusion for disabled people'

4.00 – Tea and Coffee

- A chance to discuss the day, look at others' contributions, and make a final sweep of the stalls!